

WHAT ARE MY CHANCES OF RECEIVING

SOCIAL SECURITY DISABILITY BENEFITS?

When you can't work because of bad health, Social Security Disability benefits help you hold on to your independence. But winning benefits is far from automatic. See below for average award rates in the Washington, D.C., area and nationally.

INITIAL APPLICATIONS:

NATIONAL AWARD RATE:
23%

AWARDS AFTER DISABILITY HEARINGS:

MARYLAND:
45%

AWARDS AFTER DISABILITY HEARINGS:

WASHINGTON, D.C.:
34%

AWARDS AFTER DISABILITY HEARINGS:

VIRGINIA:
38%

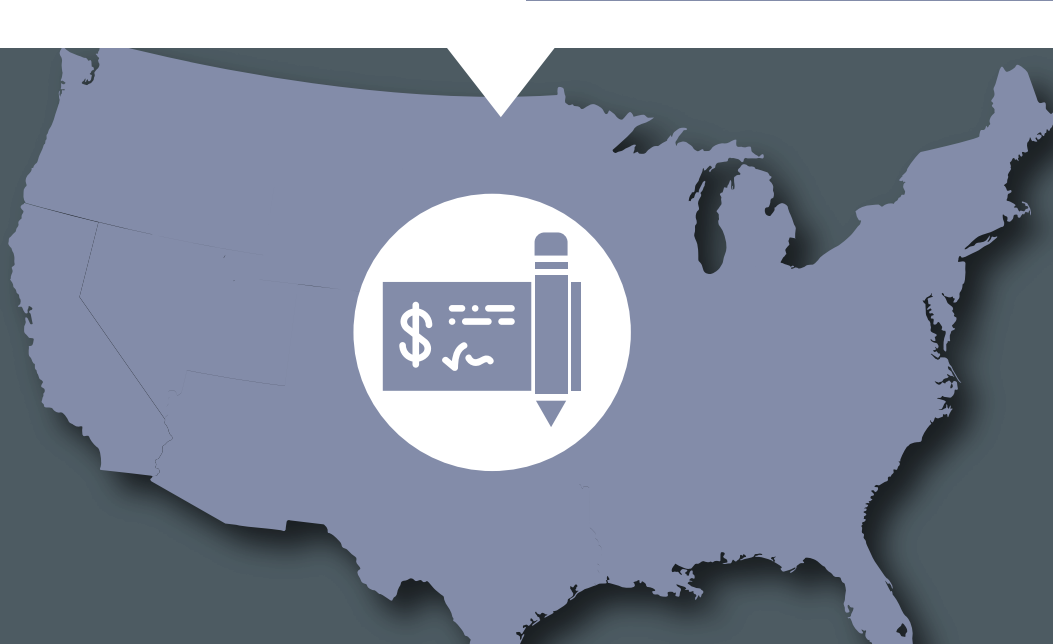

AWARDS AFTER DISABILITY HEARINGS:

NATIONAL:
43%

OVERALL AWARDS AFTER APPEALS:

NATIONAL FINAL RATE:
34%

MATHIS & MATHIS
DISABILITY ADVOCATES

If most people are getting denied, how do you get your disability claim into that smaller percentage of people who get approved? One recent government report found that people who bring representatives to their hearings are three times more likely to win benefits. Mathis & Mathis Disability Advocates have helped thousands of people win.

CONTACT US!

800-462-8447

MATHISDISABILITYADVOCATES.COM

Notes: Numbers for initial applications and overall awards are averages for 2006-2015 from the Social Security Disability Insurance Annual Statistical Report. Numbers for hearing results are from March 2018.